Rising Sign is in 28 Degrees Capricorn

You are practical and reserved but very ambitious. An achiever and a hard worker, you respect success. Older looking and very serious as a youth, things lighten up and you relax more as you mature. You have a serious view of the world as being a difficult place to be in. Very envious of those who seem to have an easier life than you have, relaxation and play do not come easily. It is important that you had abundant parental support as a child so that you do not feel lonely and isolated as an adult. Generally, you have a good, earthy sense of humor that can carry you through when times really do get tough. You are purposeful, self-willed, industrious, realistic and responsible. The profession you choose will have to permit you to act independently, with authority, practicality and seriousness. You need to feel that you are doing something useful and practical. Avoid projects where you do not have the possibility of advancement, or learning a little more every day, or where you do not have coherent superiors or logical organization.

Sun is in 26 Degrees Cancer.

Very emotional and sensitive, you have an intuitive understanding of the "vibes" around you. You tend to be quite generous, giving, loving and caring, but only when your own needs for emotional support, love and security have been met. If they are not met, you tend to withdraw into yourself and become very insecure and selfish. Your home and family (especially your mother or the person who played that role for you early on) represent security for you and thus assume a larger-than-life importance. Very sentimental, you have vivid and long-enduring memories of the past. No matter how well adjusted you are, you will always need a secret quiet place of your own in order to feel at peace. Feeding others can give you great pleasure you would enjoy being part of a large family.

Moon is in 01 Degrees Capricorn.

You are serious and shy and very uncomfortable in those situations where spontaneous and exuberant emotional reactions seem called for. An achiever, you prefer doing practical, worthwhile things that produce tangible results. You need role models to respect, love and emulate. You tend to feel that you're a failure unless you get an important and highly respected position in life. Don't be so hard on yourself! For you, practical needs always win out over emotional considerations. Remember that you too have the right to comfort, security and love. Dutiful and patient, when you make an emotional commitment, you sign on for the long haul – your love is long-enduring. Your job will have to satisfy your emotional need to find a solid base, possibilities of growth, to reach positions of authority, independence and power. You need to feel proud of the position you occupy and to identify with it. You also have the need to receive recognition and rewards and the possibility of increasing your prestige each day.

Mercury is in 05 Degrees Cancer.

Your emotions tend to rule your thought processes. You have difficulty seeing life objectively. You have an excellent memory, especially about things to which you have formed an emotional bond. You prefer ideas and thoughts that are known and familiar, and therefore tend to dislike fads or radical ideas. The beliefs and traditions of your family and culture are very important to you. Your thinking becomes quite unclear when you are emotionally shaken – try not to make major decisions when you are upset. Let things calm down first. The enhanced emotional influence of Mercury in Cancer implies imagination, creativity or artistic talent. You show ability in and a taste for poetry and music. Mercury in Cancer individuals are extremely susceptible to consciously or subconsciously absorbing the ideas and thoughts of those around them. This makes objectivity and originality hard for them to generate. They can, however, inject valuable intuitive or instinctive elements into ideas or into the expression of ideas to make them more appealing and effective. Whatever their ideas may be, or however they may have been generated, Mercury in Cancer individuals need to find some means of personally expressing themselves. They will not be content to be unnoticed or unappreciated.

Venus is in 24 Degrees Gemini.

You are friendly, warm, open and tolerant toward others. You love variety in relationships, indeed you may even prefer to maintain more than one relationship at a time! Very witty and humorous, you have the ability to amuse and please others. This makes you quite popular. You love to play the field and thus find it difficult to settle down and make any deep emotional commitments. Your innate charm and vivacity makes you welcome most everywhere you go.

Mars is in 01 Degrees Libra.

You are very aware of the need to cooperate with others in order to further any effort. You are usually willing to compromise with others, although you can be quite competitive in a friendly way. Very fair-minded and impartial, you have the ability to sense injustice and the desire to take corrective actions to make proper compensations. You see both sides of issues and questions, but you tend to be undecided or wavering when forced to make choices that might make you vulnerable or unpopular. The Libran influence implies the possibility of special talent in law, art, design, and music. They are not particularly geared for wasting energy in combative gestures, and will more than likely go out of their way to avoid direct conflict. They are good strategists, and able to accomplish things through diplomacy and charm.

Jupiter is in 20 Degrees Sagittarius.

You have a very strong sense of ethics and morality. You are widely read and may also be widely traveled because you are sincerely interested in expanding your knowledge of the world about you. At times, you have an annoying tendency to be self-righteous and preachy about your belief system. You are usually quite idealistic and you demand the right to be able to explore the entire world of experiences yourself. Remember to grant others the similar right – be tolerant, not dogmatic.

Saturn is in 22 Degrees Leo.

Extremely self-reliant, you set very high standards of conduct and decorum for yourself, and you expect others with whom you associate to be that way, too. It is important that you had a strong father figure or role model early in life to mold your life course and direction. When you feel that those around you are unworthy or behaving badly, you withdraw, preferring solitude rather than associating with those who might besmirch your reputation.

Uranus is in 28 Degrees Gemini.

You, and your peer group as well, are attracted to new, unusual and revolutionary thoughts, ideas and lifestyles. You prefer abstract, idealistic solutions to practical, immediately useful answers. You delight in communications, the mass media, electronics, computers and all sorts of gadgetry.

Neptune is in 10 Degrees Libra.

You, and your entire generation, idealize all of the various experimental approaches to relationships – including "living together", the formation of communes and collectives and the whole concept of "open" marriages. There is a stress on weakened commitments on an emotional and contractual level, but there are heightened expectations of the level of commitment and mutual support on the spiritual and metaphysical level.

Pluto is in 14 Degrees Leo.

For your entire generation, this is a time when the relationship of the individual to society as a whole is being thoroughly re-examined. Major attempts will be made to find a balance between the need to be self-sufficient and the need to honor debts of social commitment.

N. Node is in 11 Degrees Taurus.

It's not in your nature to seek out many casual acquaintances in your daily round of activities. You feel much more comfortable with a small, close-knit group of people – those with whom you can relax and work toward known and clearly defined goals. Your loyalty to a person or group, once given, is forever – you'll expend all of your quite considerable energy in seeing that the group stays together and prospers. You choose your partners and relationships so carefully that you're bound to gain certain advantages from them, including those of a material nature. Be careful though not to let mere self-service be your motivation in establishing your connections – make sure that there's an even give-and-take!

Impatience with learning makes formal education confining. They dislike being subjected to long lectures and convoluted thinking, though they are not above engaging in such things themselves. Organization and mundane details present too much of a task and if their occupations demand this sort of attention, they may resort to hiring others for assistance. Those who possess more patience in learning as well as self-expression are excellent writers or debaters. Never content with simple discourse and theory, they need to turn ideas into action. They may never get around to settling anywhere since one activity or another constantly draws them away from home.

No matter what the reality of their childhood, somewhere along the line they manage to develop the sense that they have no control over things. As a result, they have great reluctance to allow anyone else to assume control over their lives and destinies. If for one reason or another, they do relinquish such control, it can be a significant impediment to their growth and maturity. There may be a complete change of career for them later in life. There is an implication that, if they do not gain public attention and power themselves, they attract friends and associates who gain such positions. You are very competitive in your profession and ready to argue with your boss and colleagues, and probably come out on top. You are very particular in your choice of profession and not likely to follow the advice or wishes of your family. Your most powerful professional weapon is your own intuition. You are serious, cautious and reserved and may lack a sense of humor. You will have to learn to enjoy life and to loosen up with regard to your responsibilities. You have great mental vitality and excellent ability for fields such as education and management in general. It is important that you learn to share and not isolate yourself from others.
